Rev. N. W. Whitmore was in Bow City on Thursday and is right in line for the promotion of the Lomond Chautauqua in his territory. He and Mrs. Whitmore are going to the C. G. I. T. camp at Medicine Hat for a couple of weeks to assist in the supervision of camp activities.

J. L. Rickett who is now farming irrigated land on the Bow Slope gave The Press a call last week and states that everything is booming ahead out there with rains enough to bring on the first cutting of alfalfa without irrigation. He has thirty acres of alfalfa and expects to stack at least ninety tons of hay.

Dad Cox is renting the Farrell & Porter feed barn and will open up in time for the heavy fall trade.

The C.P.R. stacked up a car load of grain doors at Lomond this week.

While this has been a dry week the crops seemed to respond to the forcing heat and the splendid wheat field are standing to nearly four feet in a wealth of green. Some of the rye fields are shoulder high and will be ready to harvest within twenty days. There are signs of rain in the air and no doubt we will get it before any great need arises.

G. L. Farrell came down from Calgary on Wednesday and is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clements, while looking after his local interests.

The Ladies' Aid ice cream social held on Saturday afternoon on Mrs. Clement's verandah Saturday afternoon was a most enjoyable as well as a very successful affair financially, the proceeds totalling $32.90. The ladies made the tables very attractive and the service most dainty, and this with the setting of most beautiful house plants was enough to lure the coins even from the wary. Mrs. Forster on behalf of the Ladies' Aid desires to extend thanks particularly to those who donated cream for the ice cream and to all who in any way helped toward the success of the affair.

Lomond junior athletes made a regular clean-up at the Enchantments sports on Monday. The basketball team won from Enchant in a very exciting game in a score of 13-8. This rather served as a revenge for the events of a year or two ago. The Lomond players were:—Mary Maronda, Myrtle Maronda, Grace Hartwick, Jean McKay and Lorraine Plunkett. The prize was $6.00.

In the base ball tournament the boys won a double header, one game from Retlaw 16-1 with a $10.00 prize, and the second game from Enchant 12-11 with a $15.00 prize. The line-up was as follows:—Fred Steeves p., Frank Asselstine c., Norman Erskine 1b., Horace Steeves 2b., Fred Maronda 3b., Jack Steeves ss., Charles Maronda rf., Reginald Frost cf., Oren Bly lf.

J. H. T. McLean came over from Nanton on Saturday, spending the week-end with Laurence Phillips.

Mrs. Temple is enjoying a visit from her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Sibbald of Grimsby, Ontario. Miss Kerr, of the Lethbridge school staff, is also spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Temple before leaving for Ontario for the remainder of the holidays.

The Press had hoped to publish this week a full account of the successful picnic held at Midway on Monday but the copy did not arrive in time. It will be in next issue.

Miss Jessie Newton is giving up phone office and is going into the Standard Bank July 15th. H. L. Byle of Travers is relieving on the local bank staff while Tommy is away.

Miss Leona Thiel came home from Vauxhall last Friday.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. H. Booth and family desire to extend to the many friends and neighbors who so generously lent their assistance and sympathy at the time of the illness and death of Mr. Booth, their most sincere thanks, and also to thank those who provided the floral tributes.

Re-Union of Olds School Agricultural Students

In place of the one day reunion which has heretofore been held during mid-summer, the executive of the alumni association of the school of agriculture at Olds plan this year to make the annual event of two days duration. This extension admits of a far more comprehensive program than has previously been possible.

Additional to the ever successful social side of the reunion a series of lectures on problems confronting the men and women on the farm has been arranged. Men prominent in the agricultural life of the province have signified their willingness to address the ex-students and these addresses followed by discussions, will undoubtedly result in benefit to those attending. A close survey of the results of work undertaken on the school plots and farm will also be a feature.

The alumni association of the Olds Agricultural school is in the seventh year of its life. From a small beginning it has grown until the membership list includes a large proportion of all students passing through the school. The volume of the attendance at the semi-annual reunions may be used as a criterion of the value of the work undertaken by the Association. A record breaking gathering is expected on July 19th and 20th. Ex-students are requested to get in touch with the secretary at Olds, and together with their friends, make it a point to attend. Detail of the program will be published later.

Lomond Chautauqua, July 31 August 1, 2 and 3.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS PRINT

An elastic conscience is far more necessary than brains in the accumulation of a fortune.

It is true that large fortunes may begin in industry and frugality; but they grow from other causes. Not one dollar of the present fortunes of the Rockefellers, Morgans or Astors has been earned by the present possessors. The original which was earned has been long since spent. These fortunes are entirely composed of moneys received as rent, interest and dividends. The growth of large fortunes is not grounded in justice.

o o o

An English woman living in Scotland sent her maid to buy a sheep's head.

"And mind, Mary," she said, "it must be and English, not a Scotch one."

Mary arrived at the shop and asked for a sheep's head. The butcher showed her one.

"Is it English?" she asked.

"No lass, it's Scotch," replied the butcher.

"Than it will no do," retorted Mary. "Mistress said I was to be sure and get an English one."

The butcher tossed the sheep's head to his assistant and said, "Here, Jock, take the brains out o' that, than it'll do!"

No law can be successful maintained that does not have behind it the force of public opinion; no matter how good in principle that law may be. The Ontario Temperance Act is a good law. We fought for it, and we are determined to keep it, but I believe that temperance people who regard their work as having come to an end with the passing of the O. T. A. who, failing to realize the absolute necessity for building up public opinion, leave the O. T. A. to the mercies of enforcement officers, are poorly serving the cause of true temperance.—J. J. West Coast Motor Tour

1. The C. P. S. S. Motor Princess. 2. Chuckaunt Drive, a link in the Pacific Highway. 3. Dance floor on the ferry.

NOT only have Bellingham, Wash., and Victoria, B.C., been brought into closer connection and more friendly relations by the recent inauguration of a ferry motor transport service by the new Canadian Pacific "Motor Princess", but western tourists as a whole have been provided with a new route to the Capital City of British Columbia, and one that has the alluring charm and refreshing diversion of a three and a half hours' water trip. The new water route for touring motorists from the mainland to Vancouver Island forms the base of a triangle which provides a circuit tour from Victoria through Nanaimo and Vancouver and via the beautiful Pacific Highway through New Westminster and Bellingham to Oregon and Washington destinations. This tour takes one through some of the most beautiful scenery on the continent. Exhilarating sea breezes are enjoyed along the whole route, which is through country the climate of which is so delightfully equable, that the semi-tropical foliage is pleasing to the eye and fragrant the year round.

In addition, the ferry links the wonderful roads on Vancouver Island with the California Bee Line, the western arc of the great 6,000 mile circle tour which embraces twelve national parks in the United States and three in Canada, and of which the Banff-Windermere Highway through the Canadian Rockies to be officially opened on June 30th, forms one of the most delightful parts.

The ship which has made this Mainland-Island-Circle tour possible was specially designed for the service and possesses many distinctive features. She has parking space for 50 automobiles on two decks and accommodation for 250 passengers. A saloon, smoking room, restaurant, dance floor and deck spaces for promenading have been fitted up for the convenience of the travelling public, and the vessel is equipped with twin diesel engines which ensure a speed of 14 knots in all weathers.

The most destructive hail storm in the history of Alberta passed from De Winton to the boundary on Sunday afternoon hitting hard at Okotoks, High River, Nanton, Claresholm, Granum, Lethbridge and so on down the line. Crop damage to the extent of ten million dollars is estimated to lie in the wake of the storm. Apparently the velocity was high at the time it struck Lethbridge for it smashed thousands upon thousands of panes of glass, one greenhouse alone suffering to the extent of fifteen thousand lights. The path of the storm was right through the best of Alberta's wheat fields. When Rev. Forster and family drove through the Nanton and Parkland districts last week they remarked upon the wonderful crop prospects showing there then. About eight miles was the average width of the storm but less destructive portions spread to greater areas. A. C. Little, formerly of Midway, who was farming near Nanton this year, was among the unfortunate ones hailed out. On Monday a cloudburst of rain fell between Calgary and Banff when the C. P. R. main line tracks were washed away in seven places and more than two hundred automobiles on the road between Calgary and Banff were stalled in the mud. Train loads of passengers were necessarily held over between Cochrane and Banff and just about ate up all the provisions available.

The big prize fight is over. Dempsey retains his title by a decision, Gibbons having stood up for the full fifteen rounds. It cost the Shelby promoters about a hundred thousand dollars to stage this advertising scheme as only some seven thousand spectators paid admission to see the fight. While Dempsey drew $262,000 on his contract, he lost the public's sympathy and the boxing game got the hardest slam it ever experienced. From now on the town of Shelby will stick to the oil business and let the fight promoters stay at home in New York.

LOMOND ALBERTA, JULY 6, 1923

NOTES

After taking in the grain enquiry commission sitting at Vulcan we are more than ever impressed with the futility of attempting to legislate away the grievances that now exist in connection with the marketing of grain.

The fundamental grievances are apparent, but there is a maze of detail hedged about them that is hard for the lay man, not to say anything of the expert, to penetrate.

The producing end and the marketing end are now to separate and complete lines of endeavor. There is not even a bond of sympathy between the two factions. The marketers are in complete control and the producers are suspicious of every move. Many of these suspicions have a sound foundation, but many are due to lack of information to which the producer should have ready access.

One must admit that this commission is a step toward ultimate solution. The members on the commission appear fair in their attitude. Every effort is being made to unearth the grievances and suggestions in the minds of the producers and of the public in general as well, but after listening to a session one is struck with the futility of expecting very much to happen from the airing of a grievance.

The Press has always maintained that the way to solve the problem was for the producers to organize a marketing system that would eventually replace the present order. This will mean a number of years but must come or the farmer will go. The interlocking of the great concentrated financial interests and the organized grain marketing interests are not to the enrichment of the producer. Human nature was not not built that way.

The report of the commission may result in a closer checking up of present regulations and the removal of a few special privileges that the grain interests now enjoy, but it won't get much farther. But, if some of the information it obtains results in setting the brains of the producer to hard thinking, it would be money well spent.

It is interesting to note how the sitting is followed by representatives of the grain and milling companies in order to check up anything brought to light, but we did not notice any talent there authorized by the U.F.A.

o o o

Toronto, June 28. J.A. McCausland, Conservative member for south-west Toronto in the newly-elected legislature, today, definitely announced that the first thing he would do at the next session of the legislature would be to press for a change in the Ontario Temperance Act.

"We cannot hope to get good English and Irish and Scotch stock into this province if they cannot get a glass of beer," said Mr. McCausland. "They will not come. We will keep on filling up with foreigners and we have too many of them now."

The above article was clipped and handed in to The Press by an Old Countryman who resents this coupling of booze propaganda with the immigration possibilities. To his mind the facts do not justify such an assertion, as it is a well understood fact in the Old Country that many of the emigrants choose such a place as Canada in an endeavor to gain the mastery over the drink habit. The issue might well be fought on its own merits.

o o o

The conservatives went into power in Ontario on a platform of economy. The first item of administration announced from there is the probable engaging of a financial commissioner at a salary of one hundred thousand dollars per year. How does this compare with the Alberta so-called indemnity grab of $250,000?

The day of hundred thousand dollar political jobs and three hundred thousand dollar prize fights is nearing an end, if the sentiment of the public can be taken as a gauge.

o o o

An eastern financial journal has brought to light an interesting bond. It is dated 1865 and was issued on the horse-car line. The bond is for $1,000 and is carrying its third set of coupons, having been twice extended from its original maturity in 1880. Although the property has been abandoned, the bond is still "going" at 4 per cent, and is an underlying lien of the New York railway. It has paid $3,330 in direct interest. If all interest payments had been promptly re-invested at 5 per cent, the original investment in 1865 would have returned almost $25,000 up to the present time. From 1865 to 1900 the bond carried 7 per cent interest. -Ex.
